Dr. Carl Herbster

Dr. Herbster was the senior pastor of Tri-City Baptist church for over 28 years. He also served as the president of The American Association of Christian Schools for 10 years.

He is presently the president of Advance USA, an advocacy group for conservative causes in Washington, D.C.

He also is involved on the mission field training national believers through various Christian Universities he has helped to start.

He has been married to his wife Debbie for 43 years. Together they are frequent speakers at couples retreats and family conferences. Their three sons, along with their wives and children, are serving The Lord full-time in the ministry.

Dr. Herbster has written several books and his family has produced a number of musical CDs. He is a practical Bible preacher who loves to apply God's Word to the circumstances in our society today.

He and his family have been a blessing to many.
